

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

October 17, 2019

Commissioner of the Revenue Elizabeth Hamlett is experienced in the field of property assessment. Liz has earned the reputation among commissioners throughout the Commonwealth as an extremely competent and trustworthy advocate for the citizens of Lunenburg County. By successfully completing the Virginia Commissioners of the Revenue Association property assessment education curriculum, Liz achieved the level of Master Commissioner of the Revenue early in her tenure and serves with this distinction. This accomplishment places her in a group of the most proficient Commissioners in Virginia. Liz also plays a vital role in our Association as Secretary. Her excellent service earned her the 2019 President's Award at our Annual Conference. Her professionalism is widely respected by her colleagues.

Commissioner Hamlett conscientiously serves Lunenburg County. She is committed to providing fair and equitable property assessments for all taxpaying citizens. She is an advocate for veterans who qualify for property tax exemptions. She is an advocate for businesses and individuals alike, ensuring that none should ever pay more than their fair share of taxes. And as a qualified income tax consultant, citizens trust her to prepare their tax returns annually.

Master Commissioner Elizabeth Hamlett and her excellent staff provide many necessary services for the citizens of Lunenburg County. I represent a group of commissioners who respect Liz Hamlett as one of our best. I respectfully ask the citizens of Lunenburg County to re-elect her as your Commissioner of the Revenue.

Sincerely,
